REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Claims 1-28 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: regarding claim 1, the prior art does not suggest the connector as claimed, including the combination of all the claimed elements, the combination including that the front side does not comprise the die cast first housing part. Regarding claim 21 the prior art does not suggest the part as claimed, including the combination of all the claimed elements, the combination including that the formed metal sheet housing part is configured to form a top side of said front side with said die-cast base forming a bottom side of said front side. Regarding claim 25, the prior art does not suggest the connector housing as claimed, including the combination of all the claimed elements, the combination including that the front end of the connector housing comprises an enclosure formed by the second housing part at least partially forming three side of the enclosure and the front portion of the die-cast base forming a fourth side of the enclosure configured to capture connector blocks therebetween. Regarding claim 27 the prior art does not suggest the connector housing as claimed, including the combination of all the claimed elements, the combination including that the connector housing comprises a top side and a bottom side, wherein the top side is formed by the first and second housing parts and does not include the base, and wherein the bottom side is formed by the base and does not include the first and second housing parts.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
